PRESS RELEASE

Corridor Capital, LLC, a Los Angeles-based private equity investment firm, today announced the promotions of two investment professionals. Eddie Monnier was named Managing Director; and Jessamyn Davis was named Vice President.

"Our employees are Corridor Capital's greatest strength," said Craig Enenstein, Chief Executive Officer of Corridor. "Eddie and Jessamyn have been terrific assets of the firm and continue to work actively with our portfolio companies."

Mr. Monnier joined Corridor in 2005 and brings significant experience in strategy, information technology and general operations. He is a senior investor with over 8 years of direct investment experience. He has and continues to serve on both public and private company boards. Mr. Monnier earned dual BA's from Emory University and an MBA from The Wharton School.

Ms. Davis joined Corridor in 2006 and is currently a board member of Control Devices in St. Louis. She brings strong finance skills to the team having served as CFO of a family business before joining Corridor. She received a BS from the Haas School of Business at the University of California at Berkeley and an MBA from the Anderson School of Management at the University of California at Los Angeles.

About Corridor Capital

Corridor Capital is an independent private equity investment firm based in Los Angeles and is backed by a diverse group of prominent limited partners. We strive to be the preferred choice for the lower middle market entrepreneur. As Corridor Capital brings a comprehensive ability to enhance strategy, finance and operations, we find we do not compete for investments, but rather offer a business optimizing partnership for the appropriate situations. The Corridor Capital team brings extensive experience in engaging directly in the strategy, finances and operations of both private and public companies. Corridor Capital targets investments which leverage this active investor philosophy. Our focus is on companies that will benefit appreciably from this active investor approach, and consequently, Corridor Capital pursues opportunities across a wide array of industries.
