

Corridor Capital's Control Devices acquires Hunter Fritz World Source Manufacturing

We are pleased to announce that Corridor Capital, LLC portfolio company Control Devices, LLC acquired Hunter Fritz World Source Manufacturing, LLC on Wednesday, September 3, 2008.

Hunter Fritz is a value added global sourcing organization providing component sourcing and product design/development for customers in the flow control market, with particular strength in pressure washer accessories. With the addition of Hunter Fritz, Control Devices is immediately able to offer a broader product range and more comprehensive sourcing options for its customers. Hunter Fritz headquarters are located in St Louis, MO with additional operations in Shanghai, China.

Hunter Fritz President Jim Norris will join Control Devices assuming the role of Vice President of Sales and Marketing. Jim brings 16 years of flow control experience in sales, marketing and general management to Control Devices and will also serve on the newly formed Acquisition Taskforce.

"We are delighted to have Jim , his team and the Hunter Fritz product line join the Control Devices family. Jim and Hunter Fritz have a phenomenal reputation in the flow control industry and will contribute very strong product and supply chain knowledge as well as a high quality group of products and customers," said Control Devices CEO Mark Engel.
